† The Round Table – Elite European global management group, owners of The London Times, aka the “Committee of 300” and the “Olympians,” established in 1900 by Cecil Rhodes and Lord Alfred Milner as a vehicle for English nobility and their agents to continue their domination of the world. Originally organized in two parts – an inner group called the “Circle of Initiates” and an outer group called the “Association of Helpers,” – the Round Table’s goal is the establishment of a one-world European-dominated government financed and controlled by the royal families of Europe.
